The story tells that a tiny kawaii goddess landed on the internet on a sunny day in the summer of 2010 to protect and reward those who are cute at heart. Don't be fooled by her lilliputian figure, her powers are said to be immense...

If you print, cut and assemble her nicely she will make your wishes come true.
Once she's set up, write your prayer (rhymes preferred) on a small strip of paper, fold it and insert it carefully inside her headband, she'll use her pink magic and do all that she can.

But don't forget to pay her back by surrounding her shrine with kawaii accessorizes, even a tiny goddess won't work for nuthin'!

Caution: Do not disturb during levitation, do not feed, and stay pure at heart.
